

↑ Topaz chip along the joint of the polychromatic crystal, 15.5 x 7.5 x 5.5 cm. Mining Museum of the St-Petersburg Mining Institute (No B-3091)

← Parallel intergrowth of morion crystals, which acquired almost monocrystalline head at the end of its growth. Height: 18 cm. S.A. Dovgyi Private Museum, Kiev

↓ Chip of rock crystal, 14.5 x 7 cm. Fersman Mineralogical Museum

↑ Molybdenite crystal (4 x 3.7 x 1.4 cm) with steps of growth surface. S.A. Dovgyi Private Museum, Kiev

← Beryl, 6.5 x 2 x 2 cm. Vernadsky State Geological Museum, No MH-49280, gift of V.S. Bulgakov, 1968

↓ Goethite with hematite, spherulites up to 3 cm, Museum of Precious and Decorative Stones, No 1157

