

1. General view of show hall.
2. Aquamarine crystals from Sherlova Gora locality (Transbaikalia, Russia) are finds of 2009.
3. Collectors: Boris Z. Kantor and Anatoly V. Kasatkin.
4. Nastya Abramova with calcite specimen from Dalnegorsk.
5. Mikhail Anosov with his partners (Russian Minerals Co.) represents outstanding specimens from different localities.
6. Eudialyte ball of such quality is quite rare. Specimen: Nikolay Frishman.

7. Creedite with fluorite, 45 x 31 cm.
Navidad, Durango, Mexico.

8. Aquamarine, 6 x 1 cm.
Novikova vein, Sherlova Gora,
Transbaikalia, Russia.

9. Tennantite, crystals up to 2.5 cm.
Dzhezkazgan, Kazakhstan.

10. Heulandite,
crystals up to 4 x 2.5 cm.
Krutoye locality, Tura district,
Central Siberia, Russia.

11. Chalcedony, 15 x 21 cm.
Krutoye locality, Tura district,
Central Siberia, Russia.

12. Crystallized copper, 22 x 22 cm.
Rubtsovskii Mine, Altay, Russia.

Specimen: «Russian Minerals» Co.

Photo: Michael Leybov.